QUALIFYING CHARACTERISTICS

Parish Episcopal School is actively seeking a professional educator to serve as a full-time Upper School English instructor and advisor for the 2022-2023 school year. The English department is known for its collegiality, creativity, intellectual curiosity, and commitment to continuous improvement. We welcome hard-working and good-humored candidates who want to contribute to our dynamic team.

Applicants should be capable and comfortable teaching English courses across the Parish curriculum. In addition to instructional flexibility, successful Parish teachers and advisors are committed to supporting students' academic and personal development. Finally, applicants should be growth-oriented and open to learning about and teaching in a variety of modalities.

Parish recognizes that teaching excellence comes in many forms and we hope to see many of the following characteristics in our applicants:

- Bachelor's or advanced degree in English preferred
- A minimum of 3 years of Upper School English teaching experience
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Tact and good judgment when dealing with parents, colleagues, and children
- Classroom management skills and adherence to school policies
- Commitment to positive and active participation in the life of the school
- Ability to meet physical and mental requirements of the position
